

2022 HSA Contribution Limits:

HSA	2021	2022
Self-only contribution limit	$3,600	$3,650
Family contribution limit	$7,200	$7,300

The contribution limits for HSAs in 2022 will increase to $3,650 for single and $7,300 for family.

2022 HDHP amounts/limits

2022 high-deductible health plan (HDHP) amounts and expense limits were also announced.

HDHP (self-only coverage)	2021	2022
Annual deductible not less than:	$1,400	$1,400
Annual out-of-pocket expenses don't exceed:	$7,000	$7,050

HDHP (family coverage)	2021	2022
Annual deductible not less than:	$2,800	$2,800
Annual out-of-pocket expenses don't exceed:	$14,000	$14,100

The above limits means that an HDHP in 2022 is a health plan “with an annual deductible that is not less than $1,400 for self-only coverage or $2,800 for family coverage, and the annual out-of-pocket expenses do not exceed $7,050 for self-only coverage or $14,100 for family coverage,” according to the IRS notice.

Your employees must be enrolled in an HDHP to be eligible to participate in an HSA. HDHPs are often referred to as HSA-eligible health plans.
